Do not report those investments based on related or underlying portfolio assets. Cash equivalents include bank deposits, certificates of deposit, bankers' acceptances and similar bank instruments.

Some assets could be classified into more than one category or require discretion about which category applies. You may use your own internal methodologies and the conventions of your service providers in determining how to categorize assets, so long as the methodologies or conventions are consistently applied and consistent with information you report internally and to current and prospective clients. However, you should not double count assets, and your responses must be consistent with any instructions or other guidance relating to this Section.

If you are a subadviser to a separately managed account, you should only provide information with respect to the portion of the account that you subadvise.

In column 1, indicate the regulatory assets under management attributable to separately managed accounts associated with each level of gross notional exposure. For purposes of this table, the gross notional exposure of an account is the percentage obtained by dividing (i) the sum of (a) the dollar amount of any borrowings and (b) the gross notional value of all derivatives, by (ii) the regulatory assets under management of the account.

In column 2, provide the dollar amount of borrowings for the accounts included in column 1.

You may, but are not required to, complete the table with respect to any separately managed accounts with regulatory assets under management of less than $10,000,000.

Any regulatory assets under management reported in Item 5.D.(3)(d), (e), and (f) should not be reported below.

Gross Notional Exposure	(1) Regulatory Assets Under Management	(2) Borrowings
Less than 10%	$	$
10-149%	$	$
150% or more	$	$

Optional: Use the space below to provide a narrative description of the strategies and/or manner in which borrowings and derivatives are used in the management of the separately managed accounts that you advise.

Item 12 Small Businesses

The SEC is required by the Regulatory Flexibility Act to consider the effect of its regulations on small entities. In order to do this, we need to determine whether you meet the definition of "small business" or "small organization" under rule 0-7.

Answer this Item 12 only if you are registered or registering with the SEC and you indicated in response to Item 5.F.(2)(c) that you have regulatory assets under management of less than $25 million. You are not required to answer this Item 12 if you are filing for initial registration as a state adviser, amending a current state registration, or switching from SEC to state registration.

For purposes of this Item 12 only:

- Total Assets refers to the total assets of a firm, rather than the assets managed on behalf of clients. In determining your or another person's total assets, you may use the total assets shown on a current balance sheet (but use total assets reported on a consolidated balance sheet with subsidiaries included, if that amount is larger).
- Control means the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of a person, whether through ownership of securities, by contract, or otherwise. Any person that directly or indirectly has the right to vote 25 percent or more of the voting securities, or is entitled to 25 percent or more of the profits, of another person is presumed to control the other person.

Introduction

Robert Thomas CPA, LLC (“R. Thomas”) is an accounting firm which was formed in 2004. The firm specializes in providing mathematical verification services to the public finance industry and registered as an investment adviser in 2019.

The firm is owned by Robert A. Thomas, Jennifer L. Klumpp, and Kelsi M. M. Spurgeon. Ms. Spurgeon also serves as the firm’s Chief Compliance Officer.

In addition to mathematical verification services, the firm provides investment consulting services to some of its municipal bond issuer clients. In these engagements, the firm coordinates with the client’s bond financing team (municipal advisor, bond counsel, tax counsel, underwriter, etc.) to manage a competitive bid process among qualified brokers for the investment of a portion of the clients bond proceeds into a portfolio of permitted investments. This service includes developing and distributing a request for bids for a portfolio of securities that satisfy the clients cashflow requirements and evaluating the results. The firm does not accept possession of client funds or accept discretionary authority to make investment decisions on behalf of the client. Clients may accept or reject the firm’s recommendations at any time at their sole discretion or upon consultation with their professional advisors.

The firm’s clients are municipal bond issuers whose permitted investments are governed by the resolution or indenture authorizing each bond transaction. The permitted investments are generally limited to United State Treasury obligations, federal agency securities, and on occasion specific municipal bond securities.

Services are tailored to the specific needs of each client based on the characteristics of the specific bond transaction and the individual needs of the client.

The firm does not provide investment management services.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

Fees for each consulting engagement are negotiated based on the scope of the individual engagement and follow U.S. Treasury guidelines for maximum fee. Fees are quoted as a one-time fixed fee and are generally billed upon completion of the engagement upon settlement of the investment. Fees are billed directly to the client or, at the direction of the client, to the bidder selected to provide the securities through the competitive bid process. The fee level and who will be paying and receiving the compensation is fully disclosed in the bid documentation that is disseminated to the prospective bidders.

Consulting fees charged by R. Thomas are separate and unrelated to any fees or expense charged by any broker, dealer, or custodian. See Item 12 below for information about transaction costs and brokerage practices.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

R. Thomas does not charge or accept performance-based fees.

Item 7 – Types of Clients

R. Thomas provides investment consulting services to municipal bond issuers. The firm does not have account size minimums but reserves the right to decline individual engagements.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Investment Strategies and Methods of Analysis

R. Thomas provides one-time consulting project services rather than ongoing investment advisory or management services. Consequently, the firm does not develop or implement investment strategies for clients.

The firm does however assist with managing transactions and does so in a manner to meet each client's primary objectives.

Material Risks

All investment programs have certain risks that are borne by the investor. R. Thomas's approach seeks to minimize the risk of loss, however, investing in any securities involves risk of loss that clients should be prepared to bear. R. Thomas clients may be subject to a number of investment risks. Some risks which exist relative to the services the firm provides can include the following:

Default/Credit Risk: The probability that the issuer of a security will be unable or unwilling to fund the principal and interest payments due in accordance with the terms of the security.

Market Risk: Risk of market price loss, commonly referred to as market risk, results from investments in fixed-income securities followed by an increase in interest rates. The longer the remaining term to maturity of a fixed income security, the greater the potential loss for a given increase in interest rates. In the event market interest rates rise and a fixed-income security must be sold for any reason, the investor may sell the security for a lower price than the purchase price.

Interest Rate Risk: Interest rate risk is the risk of an investor holding an investment with a lower yield than the current market rate and incurs an opportunity cost for that investment by underperforming the market.

Liquidity Risk: Liquidity risk involves the ability to sell an investment before maturity to readily convert an investment into cash.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to the evaluation of the firm or the integrity of its management. R. Thomas is not subject to, nor has ever been subject to, and legal or disciplinary events of a material nature.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Robert Thomas, an owner of R. Thomas, owns 50% of Municom, LLC, a separately owned consulting business. Municom provides continuing disclosure services to the secondary market on behalf of municipal bond issuers in accordance with their continuing disclosure agreements.

Kelsi Spurgeon and Jennifer Klumpp, owners of R. Thomas, also own a separate company, Verity, LLC, which offers consulting and monitoring services related to economic development districts.

Additionally, R. Thomas has a revenue sharing arrangement with Arbitrage Bond Consulting, LLC, a separately owned consulting business. Arbitrage Bond Consulting, LLC provides arbitrage/rebate calculations for municipal bond transactions, and like R. Thomas, provides mathematical verification reports for municipal bond transactions.

Clients are under no obligation to purchase services from either of the aforementioned businesses.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics

Code of Ethics

R. Thomas has adopted a Code of Ethics expressing the firm's commitment to the highest standard of ethical conduct. The firm's Code of Ethics describes the firm's fiduciary duties and responsibilities to clients, and details practices for reviewing the personal securities transactions of supervised persons with access to client information. We do not invest in or recommend to clients (or buy or sell for client accounts) securities in which we or a related person has a material financial interest. The Code also requires compliance with applicable securities laws, addresses insider trading, and details possible disciplinary measures for violations. R. Thomas will provide a complete copy of its Code of Ethics to any client or prospective client upon request to the Chief Compliance Officer.

Trading Conflicts of Interest

R. Thomas's investment consulting is based on its client's investment objectives and the documents governing municipal bond transactions. R. Thomas does not own any securities nor does R. Thomas expect to buy or sell any other types of securities in the future.

Individuals associated with R. Thomas generally do not buy or sell securities for their personal accounts on which the firm provides consulting services. Nonetheless, no person employed by the firm is allowed to favor his or her own interest over that of a client or make personal investment decisions based on the investment decisions of clients.

In order to address potential conflicts of interest, the firm requires that associated persons with access to consulting recommendations provide quarterly transaction reports to the firm's Chief Compliance Officer. The firm also requires prior approval from the Chief Compliance Officer for investing in any IPOs or private placements (limited offerings).

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

Use of Custodians and Brokers

R. Thomas does not maintain custody of client assets. Instead, all client assets are maintained in an account at a non-affiliated escrow agent that serves as the "qualified custodian," generally a broker-dealer or bank. Typically, the escrow agent is selected prior to our hire and is named in the bond resolution or indenture.

In the competitive bidding process, the broker that provides the lowest cost of securities or highest true interest cost, and/or best conforming bid overall for bids with multiple variables receives the award to deliver the securities. While we may recommend that a client use a particular broker-dealer as a result of competitive bidding process, the client ultimately decides. We cannot open accounts for our clients.

If a client directs us to award a bid to a specific broker-dealer rather than using the results of the competitive process, we may not be able to achieve the most favorable execution of the transaction.

R. Thomas does not receive soft dollar benefits from brokers or third parties in connection with client securities transactions.

Aggregation of Transactions

R. Thomas manages each transaction individually and does not aggregate orders from multiple clients.

Item 13 - Review of Accounts

R. Thomas is engaged for one-time consulting projects rather than ongoing investment advisory or management services. Consequently, the firm does not conduct periodic reviews of or provide reports related to client accounts.

Item 14 - Client Referrals and Other Compensation

R. Thomas does not compensate any outside parties for investment advisory client referrals, nor do we receive any compensation or non-cash economic benefit for investment advisory client referrals.

Item 15 - Custody

R. Thomas does not accept possession of client funds or securities. Clients should receive at statements from the escrow agent that holds and maintains the client's investment assets.

Item 16 - Investment Discretion

R. Thomas does not accept discretionary authority to manage securities accounts on behalf of clients.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

R. Thomas does not vote proxies on behalf of clients or assist clients with the voting of proxies. Where applicable, clients will receive proxies directly from their custodian or transfer agent.

Item 18 – Financial Information

Registered investment advisers are required in some cases to provide certain financial information and/or disclosures about their financial condition. For example, if the firm requires prepayment of fees for six months in advance, has custody of client funds, or has a condition that is reasonably likely to impair its ability to meet its contractual commitments to its clients, it must provide financial information and make disclosures.

R. Thomas has no financial or operating conditions which trigger such additional reporting requirements.
